

At Drive Right we have a range of lessons to suit Your needs.
Which lesson is right for you?

Our range of lessons include:

- Weekly lessons
- Intensive
- Semi-Intensive
- Block Booking

Weekly lessons

Intensive

Semi- Intensive

Block-booking

This is the most common way of learning to drive, and can be spread over several weeks.

A one week pass course, usually starting on Monday, with a practical driving test at the end.

The semi-intensive course is identical to the one week pass course but is spread over a longer period.

We offer discounts for booking a block of lessons. See our prices page. Students can book lessons in advance.
